Description :

PDF-d564f | The conventional perception of a leader is someone who holds a certain status: captain, coach, CEO, or other executive. And, while all of us also can be joyful followers, we all have the ability and responsibility to be leaders. In fact, anyone in any position can lead. THE LEADERSHIP CODE explores that unconventional notion of personal leadership and blends it with the conventional perception by ... The Leadership Code: Using Life's Lessons to Inspire Others
