Description :

PDF-5f305 | This 1861 classic of social realism—the first book to be reprinted by the Feminist Press in its series of rediscovered women writers—remains a powerful evocation of what Davis herself called “thwarted, wasted lives . . . mighty hungers . . . and unawakened powers.” The New York Times Book Review said of the novella: “You must read this book and let your heart be broken.” With an insightful bi... Life in the Iron Mills and Other Stories
