Description :

PDF-9a5f4 | It was supposed to be a 5k, an easy jog which would barely interrupt his life. Especially for a three time Ironman, cancer should have been no sweat. But the journey of cancer kept expanding - spreading to a 10k, then a marathon, then an ultra - even as it spread through his body. Still, with characteristic positive thinking and perseverance, Dr. Asp kept pushing forward step by step from one mile... Start Line and Beyond: Chronicles of an Athlete/Cancer Patient
